The VOCA Program

The Victims of Crime Assistance Program is a federally-funded project through the Office of Victim Services of the Connecticut Judicial Branch. The Program is designed to provide support to children and families who have been victimized by violent crimes such as physical and sexual abuse, domestic violence, homicides, robberies, assaults and motor vehicle crimes.

Services

Services provided by the VOCA Program include crisis counseling, follow-up, therapy, group treatment, information and referral, and advocacy. Both in-home and office-based interventions are provided.

Eligibility

Children through age 18 and their families who are residents of the Clinic's fourteen town catchment area and who are victims of violence are eligible to participate in the VOCA Program. The towns served are: Andover, Bolton, Columbia, Coventry, East Hartford, Ellington, Glastonbury, Hebron, Manchester, Marlborough, South Windsor, Stafford Springs-Stafford, Tolland and Vernon-Rockville.

Referrals

Referrals to the VOCA Program may be made by the Courts, Police Departments or other agencies and professionals involved with victims and their families. Families may apply for services directly by calling the Clinic at (860) 643-2101.

Service Costs

There is no charge to families for any of the services provided by the VOCA social worker.

Costs for additional services provided by other Clinic staff may be covered by insurance, Medicaid or fees geared to the family's income.

Clinic Hours

The Clinic is open daily from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and from 9:00 AM until 8:00 PM on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The VOCA Social Worker is available to provide home visits during the day or in the evenings as needed.
